

Welfare in a Civil Society

Report for the Conference of European Ministers Responsible for Social Affairs - United Nations
European Region - Bratislava, June 28 - July 2, 1993

Publication

Publication: Protection Sociale et Société Civile

Author: European Centre

1993

ISBN 3-900376-68-9

366 pages

Price: Euro 15

Changing contexts of welfare and human development

I. The Changing U.N.-European Region

II. The New Social Texture of Advanced Societies

III. A New Work Order and Social Fabric

IV. Integrating Social Development in Market Economies

Social Policies in Action

V. Some Recent Social Policy Trends in Long-established European Market Economies

VI. Social Policies in Transition: Central and Eastern Europe

VII. Family Policies: Gender and Generation Perspectives. Towards the 1994 International Year of the Family

VIII. International Migration and Migration Policies

Priorities and Recommendations

IX. Applying the U.N. Guiding Principles in Civilizing Society

X. Recommendations for European Cooperation

Annex: Social Indicators for Policy Makers:

I. Mapping Trends in the U.N.-European Region - Key Data on Populations, Work, Health and Welfare

II. Comparing Welfare Across Time and Space. Measuring Development, Setting Standards, and Transnational Learning

Downloads

Details

pdf, 3 KB, 482288